INSTRUCTIONS FOR SHORT COMMUNICATIONS

A Short communication is a special opportunity for poster authors to present their work during the respective sessions.

If your presentation has been classified as a Short communication, you must:

- Prepare your final papers in order to be included in the proceedings. The rules for formatting final papers (oral, poster or short presentations) are those published for oral communications.
- Prepare your poster following the "instruction for preparation of posters". Notice that authors must install the posters by June 21st, 11.30 am.
- Stand beside your poster during the poster session (a Question-and-Answer session with the audience, June 21st, 4.30 to 6.00 pm)
- Present the Short communication that will take maximum 5 minutes (no more than 3 slides). The schedule for the short presentations in each session will be released soon.
